Mr. Allan Dulles
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles,

I met you a number of times,
once at your house in New York when I was working for [REDACTED]

STAT

This is a shot in the dark and probably not the way to approach this matter. However,
I can think of no better way.

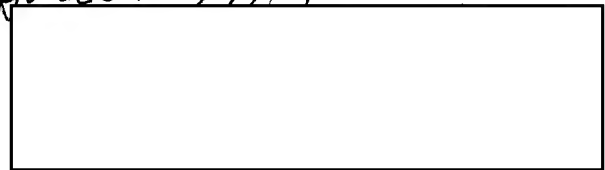

As you can see from my resume,
two copies of which are enclosed, I left

STAT [REDACTED] a year ago last April. It now appears that I have enough income to support the family, so I am available to take a job where I might do some good, regardless of salary.

Please let me know if, on the basis of my resume, you feel that you might be able to use my services. I would be very glad to go to Washington to see you, or someone in your organization.

I am writing this in long hand so that, if you should be interested there would be no record. I have told no one, not even my wife, that I was thinking of approaching the C.I.A.
Sincerely,

STAT
